Policy for Governor Visits Policy

Our Governor Visits Policy is centred, as all our policies, on our identified and selected Christian Values: Trust, Forgiveness, Thankfulness, Peace and Friendship.

- ✓ All members of the school community are trusted by all those within the school community to deliver the very best for the children in all that they do.
- ✓ Things will go wrong. There is a quiet acceptance of this deployed throughout the school and the opportunity to move on and learn from this, demonstrated through the value of forgiveness.
- ✓ All members are thankful for the community to which we belong and demonstrates this accordingly
- ✓ We learn in peace. We accept that we all learn in different ways and have different needs that require accommodation.
- ✓ We learn in friendship; supporting each other to achieve to our very best potential at all times.

Introduction

The governing body has a statutory duty to oversee the policies and direction of the school, to monitor its standards and be held to account for its conduct and performance.

Visits to the school are not a statutory requirement but they are extremely important to learn how it functions, and to keep under review how it operates. They should increase the governing body's first-hand knowledge and inform self-evaluation and strategic decision making. The amount of time that a governor can commit to visits will vary but in general governors should make at least one visit a year. If governors cannot make this commitment they should question whether they can make a realistic and valuable contribution to being a governor.

Many governors worry about making a visit to school and particularly about visiting a classroom. Therefore, whilst it is not a statutory requirement, the governing body has formulated this policy and protocols for visits in consultation with the staff. The policy suggests how the visit should be conducted so that both governors and staff to gain the most from the visit.

Governors' Visits should generally align to the priorities in the School Improvement Plan so that the governing body can monitor how these are progressing. The governing body will develop a plan of visits throughout the year to cover a wide range of school work. Each visit should have a clear purpose.

Governors should arrange their visits with the headteacher who has the responsibility of the day-to-day management of the school.

Purposes of a visit

A visit should enable;

Governors:

- To recognise and celebrate success
- To get to know the staff
- To show themselves as part of the school

- To improve knowledge of the school, its staff, needs, priorities, strengths and weaknesses
- To monitor and assess the priorities outlined in the school improvement plan and observe policies in action
- To assist the governing body in fulfilling its statutory duties and demonstrate their role as critical friend
- To develop an understanding of issues facing the school to inform decision making
- To understand the environment in which teachers teach
- To find out what resources are needed and prioritise them

Teachers:

- To ensure governors understand the reality of the classroom
- To get to know governors
- To understand better the governors' roles and responsibilities
- To have an opportunity to reflect on practice through discussion
- To highlight the need for particular resources

A visit should not:

- Be a form of inspection to make judgements about professional expertise of the teacher
- Check on progress of one's own children
- Be used to pursue your personal agenda
- Monopolise school/teacher's time

Annual programme of visits

A programme of visits will be planned and spread evenly across the school year in consultation with the headteacher. Visits should focus on the priorities identified in the school's development plan. Regular review of this programme will enable governors to see what areas/activities receive visits and those that do not.

Visits can take the form of:

- Meeting with staff
- Pupil interviews
- Looking at pupils work
- Meeting with staff groups
- Reviewing areas and resources of the school

Monitoring and review of school visit policy

The policy will be monitored with feedback sought from both governors and staff. It will be reviewed every other year. In so doing we will ask ourselves:

- Are our visits achieving the potential benefits we identified?
- Have there been any unexpected benefits?
- How can we make our practice even better

Preparing for a visit

- Check this policy
- Clarify the purpose of the visit. Is it linked to the School Improvement Plan? What are the relevant school Policies? How does this determine the activities I am interested in?
- Discuss the agenda with the headteacher well in advance and seek approval for your visit and agree a date that is suitable.
- Find out if there is a prompt/question sheet/checklist, agreed by staff and governors, to guide governors' visits.
- Discuss the proposed agenda with the staff involved. How do they want governors to integrate into the lesson? Would note taking be allowed? It might be possible for you to see a copy of the lesson plan beforehand.
- Be clear beforehand exactly what you are observing. Try to prepare questions for staff in advance. The teacher may be able to guide you on this.
- Discuss with the headteacher/class teacher if any supporting information is available – Ofsted report, improvement plan, performance data.
- Ensure that you are familiar with health and safety procedures

During the Visit

- Remember you are making the visit on behalf of the governing body, it is not appropriate to make judgements or promises on behalf of the governing body.
- Be punctual, keep to the agreed timetable but be flexible.
- Remember you are there to learn, it is a visit not an inspection. Dress 'smart casual' so as not to be intimidating
- Decide with the teacher how you will be introduced and what your role in the classroom will be.
- Get involved with the children if the teacher has agreed that this would be appropriate.
- Observe discretely. Remember that excessive note taking can be disconcerting and may make your visit look like an inspection.
- Don't distract the teacher during the lesson from his/her work but be prepared to talk and show interest.
- Listen to staff and pupils, be courteous, friendly not critical.
- Interact, don't interrupt.
- Remember why you are there. Don't lose sight of the purpose of your visit.

After

- Discuss what you have observed with the teacher. Use the opportunity to clarify any issue you are unclear about. For example, did your presence have any impact on the atmosphere in the classroom? If so, how?
- Refer to the purpose of the visit. Consider together whether it has been achieved.
- Thank the teacher for supporting you in your role as a governor. Be open, honest, and positive.
- Make notes as soon as possible after your observation while it is still fresh in your mind. Complete the agreed visit proforma, once you have shared and agreed this with the headteacher pass to the clerk for circulation to the governing body.
- Discuss your observations with the headteacher. Be prepared to take the comments of others on board.

- Agree with the headteacher how and when you will report on your visit to the governing body.
- Reflect: how did that go? Has the visit enhanced relationships? Have I learned more about the school? Have I helped the governing body fulfil its duties?

Reporting your visit

- Write a short summary (see Appendix A) 'as a lay governor' of what you learned during the visit and the overall impression that was made. This will be easier if the visit had a focus.
- Circulate a draft to the head and any staff involved as soon as possible after the visit for them to check the accuracy and clarity. Be prepared to amend it. Aim to achieve a report that is agreed by those involved.
- Send the report to the clerk for circulation to the next appropriate committee/governing body meeting.

Visit's Focus

Visits should be arranged which focus on the school improvement plan priorities to inform on progress. Although not an exhaustive list visits may focus on:-

- Particular subjects, key stages or classes*
- The use made of the buildings or the site
- The condition and maintenance of the premises
- Additional educational needs
- Literacy and numeracy
- Impact of the religious character (in church schools)
- Lunch and break times
- The use and condition of resources e.g. furniture or ICT equipment
- Deployment of staff, e.g. caretaker, office staff, teaching assistants
- The impact on the school of any changes e.g. reduced classes in a key stage
- Relative numbers of questions and responses to the teacher from boys to girls

*If your visit involves visiting a class then you may wish to consider the various aspects covered in Appendix B.

Informal Visits

Visits may also take place in an informal capacity. 'Discreet' information can be gathered on these visits which build on your knowledge of the school. It is vital that everyone is clear about the capacity in which they are visiting and not to confuse the role.

- The chair making a regular visit to see the headteacher
- To lend a helping hand with a school event
- To get information from the office relating to a committee meeting
- To help in a class
- To speak to a teacher in relation to your own child
- Attending a school function or educational visit
- Visit in relation to your position as the local priest or councillor
